Official Claim Response

Date: June 29, 2026

Project Name: LOT-6 (Yatu Bomba SSIP)

To: Tinsae Ashok Construction in JV with Desalegn Mulugeta WW&GC (Contractor)

Client: Oromia Irrigation and Pastoral Development Bureau

Subject: Response to Contractor Claim and Final Evaluation Outcome – LOT-6 (Yatu Bomba SSIP)

Dear Sir/Madam,

We acknowledge receipt of your claim concerning the evaluation of your joint venture's (JV) technical proposal for the project LOT-6 (Yatu Bomba SSIP).

In your grievance, you clarified that the 2014 E.C. date reflected in the online licensing system for partner Desalegn Mulugeta WWC &GC does not represent the actual date of establishment or commencement of practical operations. To substantiate this, you highlighted your project history, including Lot-1 Modern Fruit Nursery, Batali, Dacha Dinicha, Muya Goro, Burqa Gudina Modern Fruit Nursery, and the Demakash SSIP contracts executed with the Oromia Bureau of Agriculture and Natural Resources (OBANR) in 2020. You also reasserted the validity of your work methodology and schedule.

The Claim Committee has comprehensively reviewed your argument alongside your original bid submission, and we are pleased to communicate the following findings:

Claim Committee Findings & Observations

Financial & Audit Verification: The committee reviewed the submitted 2021 audit report for Desalegn Mulugeta WWC &GC. While the auditor's license was issued in 20 it is legally and standardly acceptable for an auditor licensed in 2022 to audit financial statements for the preceding 2021 fiscal year. The committee found no legal basis for non-acceptance.

Company History & Experience Validation: The committee cross-referenced your claim with internal Bureau records. Even though the online licensing registry indicates 2014 E.C., your active history and successfully executed projects with our Bureau (including the 2020 Fruit Nursery contracts and Demakash SSIP) conclusively demonstrate sufficient practical experience.

General Compliance: Upon reassessment, the JV has successfully demonstrated adequate average annual turnover, specific construction and contract management experience, general experience, acceptable work methodologies, and the possession of the required personnel and equipment.

Final Decision

Conclusion: Based on the verifiable historical data and a thorough re-examination of your documentation, the Claim Committee has determined that your technical and financial submission fulfills the necessary requirements.

Therefore, your claim is accepted, and your bid has been officially declared responsive. Your firm is approved to advance to the next stage of the procurement process.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation throughout this review process.

Sincerely,
