Yoda GC PLC

- The information submitted for general and specific experience was inconsistent, including the stated experience from Fisa Genat to Amaro gravel road.
- The reported work sequence was inconsistent with the contract-administration records and did not satisfy the stated requirements. For example, the site handover date for construction of the G+3 dormitory building at Wolkite University was 17/01/2023 GC, whereas the stated award-letter date was 30/06/2023 GC.
- The bidder's average annual construction turnover did not meet the required threshold of ETB 80,000,000.

Yatani construction Enterprise

- The bidder's average annual construction turnover did not meet the specified requirement.
- The submitted specific-experience work volume did not meet the requirement and contained inconsistencies. For example, the payment certificate for the Per Bongo Woreda Irrigation Project did not identify the person who prepared and approved the certificate.

Oromia Irrigation and Pastoralist Development Bureau | Food System Resilience Program (FSRP)

Accordingly, TAFCON Engineering & Trading and Wada Engineering PLC were determined to have met the applicable detailed technical requirements and proceeded to financial evaluation.
